

Assignment Questions Module 5:

Q1: Explain how different types of transitions can affect the development and behaviour of children and young people. Provide examples and suggest ways practitioners can support children during these transitions.